

Oxford-Berlin-Padua Research Network Mobility in Historical Perspective

WORKSHOP 2

MOBILITY OF IDEAS

3-5 October 2019

University of Padua

Thursday 3 October
Palazzo Liviano, Piazza Capitanio, Aula Diano

13.30-14.00 Registration and Coffee

14.00 Welcome

Introduction (Paola Molino, Giulia Albanese)

14.30-15.30 Session 1: Concepts in motion

Giuseppe Marccoci, Ideas of empire across the Iberian world (1500-1650)

Sarah Mortimer, The idea of 'nature' in a divided Europe (1500-1650)

15.30-16.00 Coffee break

16.00-17.30 Session 2: Religion in motion

Hu Jianwen, Chinese perceptions of missionaries and Catholicism. The case of Nanjing Church incident and the political influence behind it

Conor Meleady, Islam as a measure of civilization: the impact of religious diversity under colonial rule

Joshua Bennett, August Neander, religious history, and nineteenth-century Protestant nation-building

17.45 -19.00 Keynote lecture

Tania Rossetto, Intellectual mobilities: Forging transdisciplinary connections around ideas of movement

Chaired by Carlotta Sorba

Anne MacKinney, Mobilizing specimens and stabilizing intellectual property: early nineteenth-century naturalist collectors for the Berlin Zoological Museum

12.00-12.30 Session on project website and networking work

Lidia Zanetti Domingues, Past & Present postdoctoral fellow, Institute for Historical Research

Marco Orlandi, Mobilab, Department of Historical and Geographic Sciences and the Ancient World

13.00 – 14.00 Lunch

14.00-16.00 Session 5: Political ideas and political practices on the move: case-studies

Giulia Albanese, Roundtrip. The Italian Fascists' reception of the Nazi seizure of power

Celina Albornoz, Between Italy and Argentina. Transnational fascism after the IIWW

Andrea Martini, Transnational fascism after the Second World War

Paul Nolte, Circulations of Democracy in the 20th Century

16.00-16.30 Coffee Break

16.30-18.30 Session 6: Ideas within and beyond the city walls: case studies

Philipp Winterhager, Hagiography in an immigrant society: The case of 7th-century Rome

Julia Smith, Mobilising Jerusalem in the early Middle Ages

Paola Molino, Instant messaging in late Renaissance Rome

Maria Floruțău, A Late Enlightenment Intellectual Journey: From Transylvania to Berlin with József Fogarasi Pap

Venerdì 4 ottobre
Palazzo Jonoch, via del Vescovado 30, Aula Bortolami

9.00-10.30 Session 3: Ideas materialized

Stefan Esders, From Pavia to Augsburg: The travelogue of an early medieval law manuscript

Matteo Roberto Bagarolo, The mobility of texts and the spreading of new ideas concerning episcopal power in Carolingian Italy.

Luca Farina, A glimpse into Graeco-Arabic scientific manuscripts: cultural entanglement in late Byzantium

10.30-11.00 Coffee Break

11.00-12.00 Session 4: Ideas Materialized

Anya Perse, Imported Images in Cinquecento Venice: Visual Sources for Depictions of Love and Lust in Venetian 'Popular' Prints

Saturday 5 October
Palazzo Jonoch, via del Vescovado 30, Aula Bortolami

9.00-11.00 Session 7: Intellectual journeys, inside/outside university

Giulia Zornetta, The mobility of students at the University of Padua (1222-1405)

Maximilian Schuh, Bringing the studia humanitatis to the University of Ingolstadt: Mobility of Ideas at the End of the Middle Ages

Dennj Solera, From Lisbon to London? Rodrigo Lopez and the relevance of a Paduan Doctorate at the beginning of the Golden Age

Sam Wainwright, Conceptualizing the "Good German": British Historians and Wilhelmine Germany, 1871-1918

12.15-1.00 Concluding reflections